

West Central District III

OF WASHINGTON INTERSCHOLASTIC ACTIVITIES ASSOCIATION

Broadcasting Policy and Steps

General Policy:

The West Central District III of the WIAA (WCDIII) maintains exclusive broadcasting rights to all WCDIII events. Ancillary to this right is the right to require payment from the broadcaster.

1. The broadcasters requesting permission to broadcast WCDIII events must have written authorization from the WCDIII Director.
2. All contests will be played at the approved site on the date and time as scheduled. Changes will not be altered to satisfy special broadcasting schedules.
3. In addition to paying rights fees to broadcast WCDIII events, broadcasters receiving authorization must agree to promote the event no less than 15 times during or preceding the week of the event at no cost to the WCDIII.
4. Commercials must be in good taste and be acceptable to the WCDIII.
5. All stations receiving feed from the original broadcaster must pay the same fee.
6. Proof of liability coverage is required by the broadcaster and must be sent to the WCDIII office before the start of the broadcast.
7. The WCDIII reserves the right to cancel the agreement if the broadcaster violated any section of this policy.
